Movin' On Up...

May the senior class of nineteen hundred and ninety eight always follow your dreams. Keep on climbing the mountains of your goals. Always look forward as you move onward and upward in the world. This book is your personal collection of memories. As you go through the pages remember the good times that made you strong. Every memory is important. Much love to everyone in the senior class, including those who are no longer with us. Their spirits will live on forever. Most important is that you never let anything keep you from:

Dear Class of 1998,

This year Melissa and I, along with our other class officers and executive board members, are planning to have an unforgettable prom, senior class trip, and end of the year. At this point the prom is scheduled for Tuesday, May 26 1998 on the Odyssey cruise line.

As for the senior class trip, we are still exploring our options. As of now the trip is scheduled to be in Montreal for a senior weekend. The trip will include day and night activities and possibly a white water rafting trip.

Other events that we have planned for the year include several dances, as well as the semi-formal in March, a DJ contest, a car wash and other fund raising events to lower the costs of the prom and the class trip.

We enjoy being part of the senior class government. At the beginning of this year, we had hoped to build a senior class government that would be more successful then in previous years. This will help create a solid foundation for our class and the classes to follow. We hope to be able to make our last year in high school the most memorable for all of us.

Sincerely,
Daniel McGuire
Senior Class Co-President

Ode to Anne Elizabeth
Christmas Morning 1997
(To a Christmas Carroll)

Living, laughing, dancing, working,
Smiling, singing, daring;
doing - doing - doing - doing
Loving, building, inspiring,
energetically, empathetically believing,
trusting, pushing.
Uplifting, kicking prodding
up-pushing, empowering. FUN
Upset with less than the best.
Energy. Action.
Doing, doing, trying, trying.
Becoming. Being. Bearing beauty.
Beautiful boys. Beautiful children.
Men - Young men - Brave young men -
Warriors
Art. Adventure. Houses. Cars. Clothes.
Style. Daring. Different Art Students.
Friends. Great Friends.
Matchmaker.
People.

All people Misfits,
odd balls, outcasts, strays, misplaced,
displaced, ingrates. Welcome. All welcome. Welcome all.
Forgiving, fighting, leading.
Caring, Yielding.
Letting go. Graciously.
Smilingly, inspiring, bravely, unflinchingly,
unquestioningly, unpretentiously,
uncomplainingly, uncomplicated.
Blessing the way.
Come what may.
Thanking the spirit for work and play.
Eternal rest at the end of the day.
Presently, Permanently. Personally.
Eternally.
Loving. Loving us. Loves us. Always.
All of us. Always has. Always will.

In Memory Of

Ken Williams

1929-1998

On January 5, 1998, Ken Williams, a Cambridge legend and long-time resident passed away in his home in Cambridgeport after a long illness. Williams, 68, suffered from cancer, hernia complications and clogged arteries. To mourn him he leaves his devoted wife Caroline Hunter, his three beloved children: Lisette Williams, Lujeania Anglin, Ken E. Williams, two sisters, grandchildren, and many many close friends.

Ken lived a distinguished life. He was an award-winning freelance photographer whose work has been exhibited through out the New England area. His work has appeared in the Boston Globe, Boston Globe Magazine, Cambridge Chronicle, and Baystate Banner. In 1970, he received the "Award of Excellence" given by the Art Director's Club of Boston. In addition, his work has been internationally recognized and featured in Photography Italiana and Progresso Fotografico.

Ken Williams was also an activist who was passionate about human rights. Williams and his wife became national heroes in the 1970's anti-apartheid movement when they discovered that Polaroid, their employer, was providing the photographs for South African identification cards. They formed the Polaroid Revolutionary Workers Movement, organizing demonstrations and protests against Polaroid's involvement with the South African government. Ken also helped to found the People Against National Identity Cards (PANIC), which was a group that fought against the unregulated use of social security numbers as an invasion of privacy.

In 1985, Ken Williams organized the Cambridge Cares and Shares Committee to raise funds for famine victims in Eritrea and Tigray, Ethiopia. The committee sponsored successful fund raising events in which many local musicians donated their time and talent.

Williams is perhaps best known for his love of jazz and his efforts to promote jazz in the community and support struggling jazz artists. Along with his extensive community involvement, Ken was also an avid golfer. He was a member at the Franklin Park Golf cours and played regularly throughout Massachusetts. A formidable opponent, Williams wa particularly known for his excellent golf gam on the back line. Golfers who played with hi will always remember him as an unselfis player and a patient teacher who was alway eager to share his love and knowledge of gol with others.

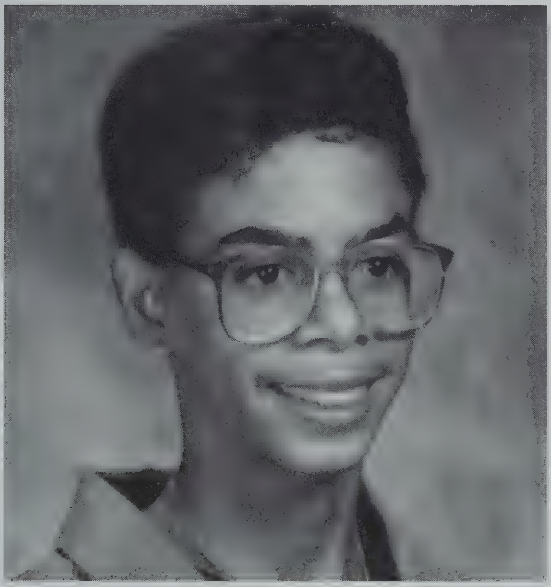
"He was dedicated to anything h started." - Jay Todd, friend of Ken Williams

"What Ken taught me is that we hav to live life to the fullest and that we have to te people we love them here and now." - Charle Ogletree, Harvard Law professor

Ken Williams touched many lives a he journeyed through life. Those who kne and loved him will always feel his presenc and see his smile in the quiet playing of sweet jazz tune or hear his "yeah, man" a another golf ball is lifted into the air on th back nine.

In Memory Of

Benny Rosa Jr.



1979-1997

Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there, I do not sleep
I am a thousand winds that blow;
I am the diamond glint on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain;
I am the gentle autumn's rain

When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft star that shines at night.

Do not stand at my grave and cry;
I am not there; I did not die.

To Those I Love

When I am gone, release me, let me go - I have so many things to see and do.
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears,
Be thankful for our many beautiful years.

I gave to you my love. You can only guess how much you gave to me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown,
But now it's time I traveled on alone.

So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must,
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a time that we must part
So bless the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away, for life goes on.
So if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near
And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear
All my love around you soft and clear.

And then, when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile, and say…
"Welcome home!"
